The world is at a critical turning point, and consumers are moving away from wasteful packaging – with good reason – Calaso champions sustainable packaging for your brand’s identity and the planet’s future. Our mission is to make glass packaging work for brands by elevating their packaging and making it easy and accessible. We strive to create a future where every piece of packaging is a work of art, harmonising the planet’s needs and business aspirations.

Creating a Beautifully Sustainable Legacy

Global Glass Packaging Partner

Calaso is committed to making your brand's vision a reality. With our expertise in design and product technology, we merge the artistry of glass craftsmanship with sustainability principles to create packaging that embodies your brand's aspiration.

We cater to businesses of all sizes, offering various responsible glass packaging solutions. Whether you're in the premium cosmetics, personal health, or food industry, our catalogue presents a plethora of high-quality glass bottles and jars. We have thoughtfully incorporated recycled materials, using the latest CO2-neutral production and shipping methods. Yet, we only see our sustainability efforts as the beginning of the journey and are determined to develop continuously as we grow.

Calaso works closely with you as partners to achieve results that reflect your brand—leveraging our marketing and engineering to understand your product and target audience thoroughly. Together, we address every aspect, from aesthetics and tactile experience to refillability and recycling.

Calaso's total packaging concept means you can effortlessly find the right packaging, including the glass, closures, and any extras you may need. We also offer various decoration techniques to ensure that the glass packaging of choice aligns perfectly with your brand and the product inside.

When it comes to small orders, or if you need something special, don't worry. At Calaso, we understand that even the most renowned businesses started small. By upholding well-stocked inventory and setting up strategic partnerships with specialised manufacturers, we can cater to diverse packaging needs, ensuring fast and reliable deliveries worldwide – no matter the industry you are in or the volumes you require.

Our exceptional customer service, logistical expertise, and technical know-how reflect our commitment to our customers. Additionally, we prioritise responsible glass production and design, use renewable energy sources, and promote recycled glass use.

The Bryn design series is a modern, wide cosmetic jar named after Bryony: a climbing plant that produces greenish-white flowers. The jars serve as the ideal packaging for products such as creams, balms, masks, salves or butters. They're classified as 'wide' due to their low profile and wide mouth. Plus, they are equally sized between bottom and top, making them easily stackable. They are available in five sizes, from 15 to 200 ml, with a 39 mm to 87 mm special thread neck finish. The Bryn has a matching lid that aligns precisely with the body, finishing its luxurious appearance and acting as a tamper-evident seal for dry products. The larger models are suitable for body lotions and scrubs.

CLEMENTINE

Our Clementine roll-on design range is both functional and durable and comes with similar yet two different looks. The 75 ml bottle is robust and sturdy, while the 50 ml edition is slim and lengthier. Both bottles are perfect for deodorants and other roll-on products, have a neck finish of 34 or 45 mm and are convenient to bring on the go. The packaging is named after the hybrid fruit, which can be seen as a symbol of purity, happiness, and good fortune.

The Flora design series is an upscale line of jars that is characterised by a thick layer in the bottom. This unique design ensures that the product is presented slightly higher in the glass packaging, which gives an elevated dimension to your cosmetic or food products. It can accommodate child-resistant lid. The jars have a rounded edge on the base as well as on the matching lid. The Flora line is available in four sizes, ranging from 30 to 120 ml, all with a wide 53/400 thread making it easy to access and dose the contents.

The Laurel cosmetic bottle collection offers a unique design that makes your cosmetics or skincare brand stand out. A luxuriously elegant collection, the Laurel is characterised by its clean lines, round shape, and squared shoulders. This series is named after the herb, which symbolises victory - a true hero item. Available in 15 ml up to 200 ml, this line also has a matching selection of pump caps, spray caps, and pipette droppers with an 18/415 or 24/410 neck finish. These bottles come with a large label area for branding. The Laurel matches perfectly with the Bryn or Camellia cosmetic jar series due to its modern, sharp-cornered lid.

LIME

The Lime design series consists of cosmetic jars with a lightweight. This range is perfect for e-commerce or travel and is especially suitable for concentrated creams, such as an eye cream. It is a series that is as fresh as the citrus fruit itself. This design series is available in two volume variants: a 30 and 50 ml jar. The 30 ml comes in both a tall and a short option. The short 30 ml jar has the same diameter as the 50 ml jar. The tall 30 ml jar matches the height of the 50 ml jar.

LINDEN

LW

This design series is the lightweight (LW) edition of the Linden range, inspired by the Boston round shape. It was named after the Linden tree, which is considered sacred by the Celts and the Germans. The lightweight design has a thinner bottom and walls, reducing the weight by up to 40%. This was accomplished without compromising its aesthetic and strength, keeping its popular round shape and giving it a luxurious effect while making the packaging feminine and user-friendly. Linden LW is a highlight in our already sustainable collection and a very interesting choice in light of e-commerce and transportation cost. The lightweight edition is available from 30 up to 500 ml, with neck finishes of 20/410, 24/410 and 28/410 threads.

MYRTLE

The Myrtle design series consists of robust, completely square bottles, eponymous with the Myrtle plant, which has evergreen leaves containing essential oils. The inner glass wall becomes thicker towards the bottom of the bottle, giving a chic effect to your product. This design feature makes the Myrtle collection perfect for cosmetic or perfume products and ensures your products will stand out on any beauty shelf. Ranging from 15 to 50 ml with an 18/400 or 20/410 thread, this packaging is bold yet elegant.

Our Victor design series contains a line of rectangular perfume or oil bottles named after Victor Reiter Rockrose, the evergreen floriferous tree. The thick bottom of the glass with its sloping angled interior walls creates a chic effect creating a strong shelf appeal. The bottom block model gives a tough and robust appearance, making it a great packaging option for cosmetic products like perfume or aftershave. Available from 30 to 100 ml, The Victor series has a slender FEA (crimp) neck 15 mm perfume bottle thread or 18/415 screw thread. This ensures that it is possible to include a suitable spray, pipette, screw or pump cap.

Zinnia glass cosmetic bottles are named after the beautiful garden flowers, Zinnias. The two bottles have a straight, but sturdy round shape. It is available in both 15 and 30 ml capacities, and both sizes have the same diameter as well as an 18/400 thread. Ideal to filling with oils, lotions, or makeup, the Zinnia is a bit more robust and shorter than our Willow series. Depending on type of closure you need, the Zinnia is a great option for smaller cosmetic products, and can be mixed and matched with our Laurel or Willow range.
